Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters Addressed From London to Sir Joseph Williamson, Vol. 2 of 2: While Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Cologne in the Years 1673 and 1674 This does indeed so inflame the people that every apple-woman makes it a proverbe, Will you fight like the French? and the inclosed Advice to a Painter, ingeniously writt and cryed up extreamly when but touching gently upon that string, and bought up so fast that I could not gett two of them. As yet wee cannot heare who will goe to sea, nor when the Fleete will goe out; the latter end of this weeke his Majesty goes to see them, and to-morrow Mr. Vernon goes in the Fanfan to see about making preparations for his Duke, who now certainly goes, but in what quality he knowes not yet. It s the generall question asked now, Who goes to sea? and they say it was all these three dayes past debated in Councell, and as yet not published who. The Prince is much adored by the people, and cheifly, it s thought, for his hatred to the French, but all say his Highness wants that which makes a happy Commander, success, for though all his actions have been performed with as great gallantry as possibly could be, yet as yet they have not been prosperous. These and such like are the politique discourses of the Towne, which, in obedience to your Ex command therein, I adventure to present.
