Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jodi Fischer is excited to visit friends and missionaries to the First Nations people in Chilanko Forks, B.C. during spring break, traveling there with her best friend, Lexie Marshal, and her brother, Brian. But the mystery she encounters is more than she expected or wanted. Someone is trying to force the missionaries from the area and they are leaving broken feathers as a curse. Scot, the son of the missionary, and his sister, Dawn, join the others in a wild adventure to find who is behind the plot to drive the missionaries away, and to stop them. Things worsen as Jodi learns that the crooks are planning on killing the missionary men and burning the buildings. Danger lies at every turn as Jodi and her friends try to unravel this puzzling mystery. Will Jodi succeed in solving the mystery and helping the missionaries? Will she find the answer to the jealousy and anger that burns in her heart? Can she forgive those who have wronged her? Fasten your seat belts because this story is one wild ride.
