A Northern Line Minute

By William Leith

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; William Leith, author of The Hungry Years and Bits of Me Are Falling Apart, tells, in A Northern Line Minute, the darkly humorous tales of his escapades on the Tube - part of a series of twelve books tied to the twelve lines of the London Underground, as TfL celebrates 150 years of the Tube with Penguin. IT is also available in a boxset. The nervy prose of William Leith could not be more apt for the rather fraught Northern line, and his manic, anxious account is probably the most addictively readable thing [in the series]. (Observer). Phobic about tunnels, Leith renders his panic and chagrin brilliantly. (Evening Standard). Authors include the masterly John Lanchester, the children of Kids Company, comic John O'Farrell and social geographer Danny Dorling. Ranging from the polemical to the fantastical, the personal to the societal, they offer something for every taste. All experience the city as a cultural phenomenon and notice its nature and its people. Read individually they're delightful small reads, pulled together they offer a particular portrait of a global city. (Evening Standard). Exquisitely diverse. (The Times). Eclectic and broad-minded. beautifully designed Totally one of the better pdf I have at any time read through. It really is simplified but shocks within the 50 % from the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
