George and Ira Gershwin - this book brings to life the collaboration of the brothers and their contribution to American theatre. What makes their songs great - and how did they become so - how were they written ? From early songs such as " Fascinating Rhythm " and " Someone to Watch Over Me " through the score of Porgy and Bess and later songs " A Foggy Day " , this books traces the musical styling of the Gershwins. Deena Rosenberg is a cultural and music historian , and founding chair of the Graduate Musical Theatre Writing Program of the Tisch School of the Arts , at New...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
