A Farm Animals Book for Children. It is a peaceful day for the farm town of Loosely. The weather is so hot that nothing moves under the sun. Nothing, except Wally Thomson and his friends who are having a refreshing mud bath. This is so much fun and the pigs are really enjoying it! After all, its summer, isnt it And what better option does a pig have than the mud It suits them perfectly! But Wallys moment of divine relaxation comes to an end when his so-called friend, Charlie Spoon, comes with his gang and tells Wally that he is expected at the sheriffs office. What Whats the meaning of all this Is it true or is it a joke Wally has no other choice but going there. And what he finds out totally surprises him! Rumor has it that a picnic will be held soon in the town. Sunday Picnic Yes!, and it will be held in an open space with lots of green grass and trees. All the Farm Animals are excited and getting ready for the picnic. The men are working on building the stage and the benches in front of it. The women are preparing cookies, pies and delicious food to serve at the picnic. The mayors entrance is also important and his speech will inspire the crowd.
