Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Charter and by-Laws of Oberlin College Sec.5. Any seven of the twelve members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum to do business; and the Board shall hold their first annual meeting on the second Monday of March, 1834, at Oberlin, in the Township of Russia, in Lorain County, and afterwards they shall meet on their own appointment; but, in case of necessity-, the President, with the advice of two Trustees, may call a special meeting of the Board, or any five members of the Board may call such a meeting by giving notice to each member at least seven days before the time of said meeting. Sec.6. The Board of Trustees shall faithfully apply all funds by them collected and received, according to their best judgment, in erecting suitable buildings, supporting the necessary officers, instructors, and agents, and in procuring books, maps, charts, and other apparatus necessary to the well-being and success of the institution: Provided, nevertheless, that in case any donations or bequests shall be made for particular purposes not inconsistent with the designs of this institution, and the Trustees shall accept and receive the same, every such donation or bequest shall be applied in conformity to the conditions or designs of the donor. Sec.7. The Treasurer of the institution shall always, and all other agents when required, before entering on the duties of their appointments, give bonds for the security of the corporation and the public in such penal sum, and with such securities as the Board of Trustees shall approve; and all process against the corporation shall be by summons, and the service of the same shall be by...
