As stated in the Preface to the First Volume, there were, and always will remain, many aspects of civic life, more especially in this unique city, in which no Military Administration, no Civil Government even, could, without thwarting civic and individual effort, occupy itself, however sympathetically inclined. The objects of the Society, as defined in the Charter, are the preservation and advancement of the interests of Jerusalem, its district and inhabitants, more especially: 1. The protection of and the addition to the amenities of Jerusalem and its District. 2. The provision and maintenance of parks, gardens, and open spaces in Jerusalem and its District. 3. The establishment in...
