Figure A on Plate I is a photograph of this tree trunk, taken May 7, 1911. Without moving the camera all the loose bark was removed and the tree rephotographed; but the negative was spoiled, and therefore another was made the next day. As may be seen from figure B the camera was a little closer, although an attempt was made to set the tripod legs into the same holes they had occupied when figure A was made. A number of very fine wind-checks are also noticeable on the exposed surface. These figures show that the cleft did not extend to the ground, although it went several centimeters below the surface of the conical mound of soil which...
