By Leigh H Irvine

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Golden Roads: The Good Road Is the Golden Road Every editor, legislator, public speaker, or other person who advocates the building of modern highways to supplant the haphazard, unimproved roads which disgrace the larger part of every state in the Union should be able to give logical reasons for the faith that is in him. Intelligent readers and auditors, sitting as Jurors who are to pass on tax levies and bond issues, demand facts. Why increase taxes? Why vote bonds? How long will the road last? What is the best type of construction for our section? What form of bond is the best? These and scores of like questions can not be evaded without danger to the good roads cause. Talking in the air and writing glittering generalities will not make converts who will work for that form of community development which finds expression in the construction of modern roads. If improved roads have helped farmers and towns, and if bad roads have retarded development, destroyed schools, and made times bad, where are the proofs?...
